Tax requirements, interest rates, regulations, material and labor shortages, energy prices, and economic factors often dictate whether a construction company will prosper or fail. It is vital to the future of the business to have an advisor who is aware of industry challenges, can recognize opportunities, and has a thorough understanding of today's marketplace.

Our experience in the construction and real estate industries spans decades. Our Construction Client Services team works with general contractors, construction managers, specialty trade contractors, homebuilders, real estate developers, real estate managers, investors and associations.

We are proud to have four team members with the Certified Construction Industry Financial Professional (CCIFP) certification. By demonstrating their continued commitment to excellence and mastery of the knowledge required of today's construction financial professional, Jack Rowell, Jody Henderson, Kelley Chamblin, and Kathleen Baldwin join over 485 CCIFP's nationwide.

Services provided to clients within the construction industry include:

- Audited Financial Statements
- Reviewed and Compiled Financial Statements
- Tax Planning
- Income Tax Return Preparation
- Licensing and Prequalification
- Multi-state Tax Strategies
- Cost Segregation Studies
- Internal Control Studies
- Claims Support and Documentation
- Monthly Accounting Services
- Continuity Planning
- Cash Flow Projections
- Equipment Acquisition Analysis
- Computer System Analysis and Installation
- Cost Certifications
- Accounting Software Selection

Whether assisting with traditional accounting services or those requiring specialized knowledge and experience, the O'Sullivan Creel Construction Client Services team can help generate tax savings, maximize cash flow, and address other construction and real estate challenges effectively and efficiently.
