Strong Alliances

Alliances

O'Sullivan Creel is a strong regional firm, with the backing and expertise of national and international resources.

Through our affiliation with The Leading Edge Alliance, our firm is partnered with a network of national experts who work directly with the firm to address the challenges businesses face worldwide, a real plus for the team members to have access to resources and best-practices throughout the nation. We offer an impressive line of professional services, in addition to utilizing leading-edge technology. As a result, our team's performance is second to none.

"Our team members have a unique opportunity to work in a regional firm, and still experience the resources traditionally available only to larger firms."

Training

A culture of continuous learning and development is prominent at O'Sullivan Creel.

Our full-time dedicated Director of Learning helps identify learning paths that provide a guide to achieve career goals and personal development.

Our program consists of both industry-oriented training, as well as a wide range of performance skills training from enhancing presentation skills to cultivating client relationships. Our desire is for team members to become personally and technically advanced, as these skills will help develop the future leaders of the firm.

"Our unique culture provides an environment where we are encouraged to grow both personally and professionally – growth and advancement opportunities are unlimited."

O'Sullivan Creel offers a dynamic internship program designed to offer college students the opportunity to experience public accounting at a large, regional firm.

The goal of our internship program is to provide a meaningful work experience for students interested in public accounting. The internship program provides an opportunity to work one-on-one with all levels of staff and to obtain invaluable hands-on experience, allowing the students to take classroom knowledge into real-world accounting situations. Plus, this experience takes place near some of the country's most beautiful beaches.

Our reputation and brand allow us to recruit the top candidates and our culture allows us to retain talented professionals while helping them achieve their goals. Come join our team and you will learn, grow and make a difference.

Internship Program

"I'm very fortunate that O'Sullivan Creel has a strong internship program. My internship was a great hands-on experience in public accounting, which resulted in a full time position with the firm. If you're looking for a challenging environment and a great place to work, you want to join O'Sullivan Creel!"
